FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Accuride Draws under Its Revolving Credit Facility

EVANSVILLE, Ind. – October 30, 2008 – Accuride Corporation (NYSE:ACW) announced today it is drawing approximately $95 million under its $125 million revolving credit facility under its Fourth Amended and Restated Credit Agreement. Because the Company does not anticipate that Lehman Commercial Paper Inc. will fund its $16.6 million portion of the drawing due to its bankruptcy filing, the Company anticipates receiving total proceeds of approximately $78.4 million in connection with the borrowing.

Following this borrowing, the remaining balance under the revolving credit facility is approximately $30 million. Lehman Commercial Paper Inc.’s remaining commitment under the revolving credit facility is approximately $7.6 million.

The revolving credit facility expires in January 2010.

“Although the Company does not have any immediate needs for this additional liquidity, in light of the current financial market conditions and as a precautionary measure, we made the borrowings under our revolver to enhance the quality of the Company’s liquidity,” said Bill Lasky, Accuride’s Interim President and CEO. “Furthermore, we continue to expect that the Company will remain in compliance with its financial covenants through the end of 2008.”
